

HOT HAPPENINGS AROUND TOWN

Artful Presents

A holiday shopping tradition in Toronto for more than 30 years and in Chicago for eight years finally debuts in New York. Much more than a crafts fair, The One of a Kind Show and Sale is an exposition for the sophisticated designs of more than 200 artists and artisans living and working in North America. Everything on display and up for sale—including ceramics, furniture, photography, painting, sculpture, wearable art and jewelry—is made by hand, one piece at a time. All artists and artisans are in attendance and are more than pleased to discuss their work with the public. Typical of the exhibitors is jewelry designer Barbara Heinrich, who created a pair of 14-karat yellow gold earrings (right) following an inspirational retreat on Long Island. “I was sitting at the edge of a pond when I noticed how enchanting water drops floating on lotus leaves look. The two briolette diamonds in my earrings represent the water drops while the 18 tiny scattered diamonds represent the mist sparkling off the leaves in the morning sun.”
