

INTERIOR DESIGN

OCTOBER
2009

Too early to start thinking about holiday shopping? You'll still want to mark December 11 on the calendar. That's when the One of a Kind Show and Sale debuts at Pier 94 in New York. Handmade furnishings—including Bee-line Studios's lamp and shade in walnut, steel, and painted tea-bag filter paper—will be offered alongside ceramics, jewelry, and clothing by some 200 participating artisans. The show's advisory council includes Interior Design editor in chief Cindy Allen.
